- d) An appointment for an Acting Assistant Professor or Acting Assistant Professor of Teaching is for a maximum of two years. A person will not normally be reappointed as an Acting Assistant Professor or Acting Assistant Professor of Teaching. Once the terminal degree has been completed, the candidate can choose if the tenure clock starts July 1 of the year of completion or at the beginning of the Acting appointment.
- e) Pre-tenure appointments are for two three-year terms, except for Assistant Professors, who have two four-year terms.

If the decision not to grant a tenured appointment is received after December 1 of the academic year following the review year, the period of notice of termination will include one complete academic year in addition to any months remaining in the academic year in which the notice of termination is received. If, however, the current term appointment with review has one year or longer to run at the date of the decision not to grant a tenured appointment, notice of intention not to renew the appointment shall be given at least twelve (12) months prior to termination date of the current appointment, and this notice shall be sufficient to comply with Article 7.01 below.

j) In the case of an Assistant Professor of Teaching:

  - ii) if an appointee is not granted a tenured appointment pursuant to k(i) above, then in the seventh year of service a recommendation whether to promote to the rank of Associate Professor must be made.
- l) No person will acquire a tenured appointment by reason only of holding a pre-tenure appointment that extends beyond the maximum period of such appointments.

2.04 Tenured Appointments

Tenured appointments are full-time appointments except when the University and a faculty member have agreed to change a full-time tenured appointment to a part-time tenured appointment. They cannot be terminated except in accordance with Article 10 below or for financial exigency or redundancy. Promotion to this rank is neither automatic nor based on years of service and it is expected that some persons will not attain this rank.

3.06 Acting Assistant Professor

Appointment to this rank requires evidence of potential ability in teaching and research. Upon completion of a terminal degree, the person's rank shall be converted to Assistant Professor.

3.07 Acting Assistant Professor of Teaching

<sup>5</sup> This language ("growing body of", also used in Article 3.09 and 3.10) is applicable to any files submitted on or after July 1, 2024. For files submitted prior to July 1, 2024 please refer to the Collective Agreement 2019-2022.

Appointment to this rank requires evidence of potential ability in teaching and educational leadership. Appointment to this rank is only appropriate when a terminal degree is a requirement for the position of Assistant Professor of Teaching and when the appointee is within 2 years of completion of this requirement. Upon completion of the terminal degree, the person's rank shall be converted to Assistant Professor of Teaching.

3.08 Assistant Professor

Appointment to this rank normally requires completion of academic qualifications, and evidence of ability in teaching and scholarly activity. Evidence will ordinarily be required to demonstrate that the candidate is involved in scholarly activity, is a successful teacher, and is capable of providing instruction at the various levels in their discipline, but it is sufficient to show potential to meet these criteria. The evidence may include the opinion of scholars familiar with the candidate's work and capability.

3.09 Associate Professor

Appointment at or promotion to this rank normally requires evidence of successful teaching and of scholarly activity beyond that expected of an Assistant Professor. The candidate will be judged on teaching as defined in Article 4.02, a growing body of productive scholarly activity, on the ability to supervise and mentor graduate students as applicable, with consideration to the norms of the unit, and on willingness to participate and participation in the affairs of the Department and the University. Initial appointment at this rank may be based upon evidence of the candidate's potential to meet these criteria, including the opinion of scholars or other qualified persons familiar with the candidate's work and capability.

3.10 Professor

- a) Appointment at or promotion to this rank is reserved for those whose contributions (judged by the criteria as set out in Article 4) are considered outstanding.
- b) These persons will have met appropriate standards of excellence and have wide recognition in the field of their interest. They must have shown high quality in teaching and a growing body of productive scholarly activity, have attained distinction in their discipline, and have participated significantly in academic and professional affairs. Promotion to this rank is neither automatic nor based on years of service and it is expected that some persons will not attain this rank.

Article 4. Criteria for Appointment, Reappointment, Tenure and Promotion

- 4.01
- a) Candidates for appointment, reappointment, tenure, or promotion, other than those dealt with in paragraph (b), are judged principally on performance in both teaching and in either scholarly activity or educational leadership. Service to the academic profession, to the University, and to the community will be taken into account but, while service to the University and the community is important, it cannot compensate for deficiencies in teaching, scholarly activity, or educational leadership. Tenured appointments are granted to individuals who have maintained a high standard of performance in meeting the criteria set forth below and show promise of continuing to do so.
  - b) Candidates for appointment or reappointment to the rank of Assistant Professor of Teaching are judged principally on performance in teaching. Service to the academic profession, to the University, and to the community may be taken into account. Assistant Professor of Teachings who are candidates for a tenured appointment are judged on the ground of excellence in teaching.
  - c) Judgments of an individual should be made objectively.
  - d) The decision to grant a tenured appointment shall take into account the interests of the Department and the University in maintaining academic strength and balance but no person holding a pre-tenure appointment shall be denied reappointment or a tenured appointment on the ground that the University has established quotas in a Department or Faculty for those holding a tenured appointment.
  - e) A person holding a pre-tenure appointment may be denied reappointment or a tenured appointment on the grounds of financial exigency or redundancy. This shall be done in accordance with any applicable criteria and procedures established under Article 12 below.

4.02 Teaching

Teaching includes all presentation whether through lectures, seminars and tutorials, individual and group discussion, supervision of individual students' work, or other means by which students, whether in degree or non-degree programs sponsored by the University, derive educational benefit. An individual's entire teaching contribution shall be assessed. Evaluation of teaching shall be based on the effectiveness rather than the popularity of the faculty member, as indicated by command over subject matter, familiarity with recent developments in the field, preparedness, presentation, accessibility to students and influence on the intellectual and scholarly development of students. The methods of teaching evaluation may vary; they may include student opinion, assessment by colleagues of performance in university lectures, outside references concerning teaching at other institutions, course material and examinations, the calibre of supervised essays and theses, and other relevant considerations. When the opinions of students or of colleagues are sought, this shall be done through formal procedures. Consideration shall be given to the ability and willingness of the candidate to teach a range of subject matter and at various levels of instruction.

4.03 Scholarly Activity

Judgment of scholarly activity is based mainly on the quality and significance of an individual's contribution. Evidence of scholarly activity varies among the disciplines. Published work is, where appropriate, the primary evidence. Such evidence as distinguished architectural, artistic or engineering design, distinguished performance in the arts or professional fields, shall be considered in appropriate cases. For Indigenous scholarly activity<sup>6</sup>, evidence may include a diverse set of outputs outside the general norms of any given discipline, such as but not limited to curation or creation of artistic or cultural exhibits, significant oral dissemination of research, policy development, and community engaged scholarship under the ownership of Indigenous nations. Evidence of oral dissemination shall be accessible for peer review and demonstrate impact.

When assessing scholarship for career decisions, consideration will be given to different pathways to academic and scholarly excellence. Diverse substantive contributions to knowledge and methods of dissemination, as recognized within the field of inquiry, are valued.

<sup>6</sup> Indigenous scholarly activity will be assessed as described above for any files submitted on or after July 1, 2024. For files submitted prior to July 1, 2024, please refer to the Collective Agreement 2019-2022.

- a) For the scholarship of teaching, scholarly activity may be evidenced by originality or innovation, demonstrable impact in a particular field or discipline, peer reviews, dissemination in the public domain, or substantial and sustained use by others. For example, textbooks and curriculum reform that changed academic understanding or made a significant contribution to the way in which a discipline or field is taught might constitute useful evidence of the scholarship of teaching whereas textbooks or curriculum revision of a routine nature would not. Innovation in Indigenous pedagogies at the university or in the community and/or the development of Indigenous curriculum for Indigenous communities may also be considered.
- b) In professional or clinical studies scholarly activity may be evidenced by research on or the creation of:
  - i) significant applications of fundamental theory; or
  - ii) significant forms and applications of professional or clinical practice.

Work with professional, technical, scholarly, Indigenous or other organizations or with scholarly publications which falls within the definition of scholarly activity may also be considered.

4.04 Educational Leadership

- a) Educational leadership is activity taken at UBC and elsewhere to advance innovation in teaching and learning with impact beyond one's classroom. Educational leadership includes but is not limited to such things as:
  - application of and/or active engagement in the scholarship of teaching and learning;
  - significant contributions to curriculum development, curriculum renewal, course design, new assessment models, pedagogical innovation and other initiatives that extend beyond the member's classroom and advance the University's ability to excel in its teaching and learning mandates;

- teaching, mentorship and inspiration of colleagues;
- formal educational leadership responsibility within Department/Program/Faculty;
- organization of and contributions to conferences, programs, symposia, workshops and other educational events on teaching and learning locally, nationally and internationally;
- contributions to the theory and practice of teaching and learning, including publications such as textbooks, print and electronic publications, book chapters, articles in peer-reviewed and professional journals, conference proceedings, software, training guidelines, instructional manuals or other resources; and
- other activities that support evidence-based educational excellence, leadership and impact within and beyond the University.

b) Judgment of educational leadership is based mainly on the quality and significance of the individual's contributions.

4.05 Service to the University and the Community

Service is a combination of assigned and self-directed tasks. This includes service performed for the benefit of Departments, Faculties, Extended Learning, or other parts of the University (including the Faculty Association), and for professional organizations and the community at large. Such service might include administrative or supervisory work, service on committees and university bodies, all continuing education activity in the community including professional education, special work with professional, technical, scholarly or other organizations or with scholarly publications not falling within the definition of scholarly activity, membership on or service to governmental or public councils and boards, mentoring activities including for members of Indigenous, racialized, or other historically marginalized groups, and other forms of academic, professional, and public service.

Service also includes professional, academic, and public service work done to advance the inclusion of all those who have been historically excluded based on gender, race, religion, sexuality, age, disability, or economic circumstance.

- d) Standard norms for joint appointment procedures will be established. If a particular appointment requires procedures outside of the norm the parties will consult to ensure that the suggested procedure meets the principle that all collaborating units have reasonable opportunity to influence the appointment, promotion or tenure decision. This includes the opportunity to participate in the development of the candidate's dossier, gathering information on teaching performance, and on the selection of external referees.
- e) It is expected that confidentiality will be respected by all those participating in consultations.

5.02 Meetings with the Head

- a) The Head shall meet with pre-tenured faculty members during the first year of appointment to review the criteria and expectations for reappointment, tenure and promotion and provide the faculty member with an opportunity to ask questions about the reappointment, tenure and promotion processes.

faculty members no later than June 30 of each year. It is the responsibility of the faculty member to provide an up-to-date curriculum vitae and other relevant information to the Head prior to the meeting.

  - i) the timing of the next review;
  - ii) the criteria and expectations of the next review, including how teaching, scholarly activity, educational leadership and service will be assessed;
  - iii) the candidate's record including their successes, any potential difficulties and how concerns may be addressed; and

In the case of separate annual meetings, the memorandum will be shared with both Heads.

5.03 Candidate's File for Reappointment, Promotion, or Tenure

a) Initial file

It is the responsibility of the candidate to provide the file that is to be reviewed no later than July 1, unless otherwise agreed by the Head.

b) Supplementing Files

The candidate or the University has the right, up to the stage of the President's decision, to supplement the file by the addition of new, unsolicited information (such as a new set of student evaluations, the publication of an additional book or article, the receipt of a grant, a published review of the candidate's work, etc.) or a response to particular concerns that emerge in the relevant documentation.

5.04 Departmental Consultation: Committees

- a) The Department Head shall consult formally at meetings convened for that purpose with eligible members of the Department in order to ascertain their views and to obtain their recommendation concerning appointment, reappointment, tenure and promotion.
- b) Faculty members eligible to be consulted are:
  - i) In the case of initial appointments, all tenured and tenure-track members of the department.

  - iv) For the purposes of this Article, Professors and Professors of Teaching are of equal rank. Associate Professors and Associate Professors of Teaching are of equal rank. and Assistant Professors and Assistant Professors of Teaching are of equal rank.
- c) Consultation shall be achieved through standing committees. These committees shall be composed of all the eligible members of the Department, or of eligible members elected by the eligible members of the Department. Members of faculty from outside the Department may be added to the standing committee when the number of eligible members (not including the Head) is less than three (3). These additional members shall be chosen by the eligible members of the Department and approved by the Dean.

5.05 Departmental Consultation: Letters of Reference

- a) Letters of appraisal from external referees on the quality and significance of the scholarly (including professional, and/or creative) achievements of the candidate shall be obtained when consideration is being given to:
  - i) initial appointment at, or promotion to, the rank of Associate Professor or Professor;

For purposes of clarification, in the case of promotion to Associate Professor of Teaching letters of appraisal should be outside the candidate's home department. In the case of promotion to Professor of Teaching, normally at least two of the candidate's referees should be external to UBC

- c) The Head shall solicit letters of appraisal from four referees, of whom at least two shall be taken from a list of names supplied by the candidate. If any material that would normally not be taken into account is considered and it is not supportive of the candidate, the contents of the material shall be revealed to the candidate. The candidate shall be given a reasonable opportunity to rebut or explain the contents, and this rebuttal or explanation shall be added to the file.
- f) When serious concerns about the candidacy arise in the departmental standing committee, the Head shall inform the candidate of that fact and the reasons therefore with sufficient particularity to enable the candidate to have a meaningful opportunity to respond either orally or in writing at the option of the committee and to introduce further relevant evidence. The candidate shall be provided with a summary of the referees' opinions, the summary to be prepared by a member of the departmental committee selected by the committee. The summary shall be prepared in such a way that the identities of the referees are not disclosed.
