Rutland South is mostly residential but has a strong business population as well with main roads that make it a very accessible area. This neighbourhood has walkways throughout the residential areas making traveling by foot or cycling quite easy. Most errands can be accomplished this way but a vehicle or transit is recommended to explore and do errands in the rest of Kelowna.
Black Mountain is just a short drive east of the city centre along Highway 33 to Big White Ski Resort. This suburban area, that is popular with families, consists mainly of single-family homes that either have gorgeous views of the valley and lake or are tucked away in wooded hillsides off of the highway.
