

Healthy Workplace Initiatives Program

Nutrition and Healthy Eating Program

Total Funding Awarded: as per your award notification email

Your Role

By implementing healthy eating programs, you are demonstrating a commitment to wellbeing in your workplace. You are taking an active role in creating healthy and sustainable communities at UBC.

The Benefits of Healthy Eating Practices

- Healthy food consumption including diets rich in fruits, vegetables and fish, are beneficial to brain health (Moore et al. 2017).
- The consumption of fruits and vegetables has been linked to overall increases in wellbeing and mental health (Blanchflower, Oswald, A. & Stewart-Brown, 2013).
- Using workplace initiatives to influence eating behaviours can help with chronic disease prevention (Quintiliani, Poulsen, & Sorensen, 2010).

Non-approved uses of this funding

- Operational expenses
 - The hiring of faculty/staff as instructors, to coordinate or support the program
 - Items that fall within the responsibility of the department to provide
 - Renovations, furniture, kitchen appliances or special equipment purchases
- Charitable donations in either an employee's name or the department's name
- The purchase of:
 - gift cards or certificates of any denomination (these are considered taxable benefits by the CRA and are not permitted under UBC's purchasing guidelines for gifts/prizes)

Implementation Instructions

- Survey potential participants to determine preferences for activities to maximize participation
- Possible activities:
 - Educational sessions
 - Food preparation and cooking skill classes (e.g. UBC's Vij's Kitchen)
 - Farm or garden visits
 - Food accessibility activities
 - Community meals or potluck events (encourage those with connections to traditional foods or food traditions to share them/stories behind them)
 - Nutrition challenge
 - Salad/food clubs
 - Grocery store tours
 - Get creative! Start a recipe club, develop healthy catering guidelines for your unit, etc.
- Options for implementation:
 - Consider how your activities can be embedded into your workplace and virtual options
 - Think beyond one-off activities and events
 - Implement evidence-based ideas and resources to create environments that support healthy eating (i.e. avoid promoting fad diets/dieting in general)
- Prizing and Awards:
 - Provide awards and incentives for participation and compliance, in addition to performance
 - Consider including spirit awards, awards for sticking with a challenge or taking part in a leadership role etc....
