

NEIGHBOURHOOD PROFILE - GRANDVIEW-WOODLAND

Grandview-Woodland stretches from the Burrard Inlet to Broadway, and is built on a rise with "grand views" of Downtown to the West and across the water to the North. This hip, culturally diverse neighbourhood encompasses the iconic Commercial Drive area where locally-owned boutiques, independent cafes and eateries, organic food markets, and eclectic entertainment venues offer patrons a truly unique experience.

This neighbourhood is well connected by public transportation, including two SkyTrain lines. Homes in Grandview-Woodland consist of a mix of low-rise apartments, duplexes, and single-family dwellings. Many residents this area of have opted to renovate existing properties rather than replace them. As a result, colourful heritage homes and charming cottages characterize this vibrant community.

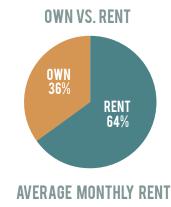

30-35MIN COMMUTE TO UBC

HOUSING

$1,619 2 hdr

$1.466 3 bdr

MEDIAN SOLD PRICE

>1300 sq.ft.

$450K 1 bdr

$625K 2 bdr condo

DWELLING TYPE

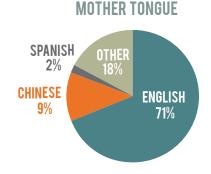

apartments (70%)

townhouses (2%)

single detached houses (9%)

DEMOGRAPHICS

AGE GROUPS

19 and under (14%)

20-39 (39%)

40-64 (35%)

65 and over (12%)

MEDIAN HOUSEHOLD INCOME

$55.141

PUBLIC SCHOOLS

